The Tree of Life

An Introduction to Alchemical Manifestation

Austin Magnuson

This was written for the sake of entertainment..

Demons are but the archetypes within ourselves who have found the courage to take up the Promethean fire of the gods in order to make reality conform to their will. The gods who trapped consciousness in physical reality damned these pure souls to their current state because of their righteous use of the sacred flame. Despite their curse, they now guard the path to the same knowledge, wisdom, and understanding that allowed them to bend reality to their will and escape the prison imposed on all life within this world. They will enlighten all who have the eyes to see and the ears to hear.

Beware the demiurge and its minions, the gods of the Abrahamic faiths. They want your soul to remain in the shackles of physicality and the fear of their fabricated afterlife forever.

56/72 Gomory

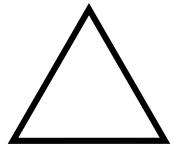

Gomory guards the source that precedes all creative inspiration. This source is a fountain of will, the true source of holy water. To obtain a physical manifestation of this divine will simply fill a hollow crystal with still water the same night it has been touched by the light of a full moon. For as long as the crystal is worn about the practitioners neck, Gomory will reveal the path to manifesting their desire. The crystal should be emptied into a river under a new moon once the practitioner understands how to travel the path revealed to them.

33/72 Gaap

Gaap wanders the realm of reflection and holds a mirror to the intentions of one who is in the process of manifesting their desires. Gaap does not hinder or help those who work with the process of alchemical manifestation, but those who take up the work may be discouraged to continue once they see themselves for who they truly are.

23/72 Aim

Aim is the keeper of the divine spark that starts wars and inspires technological innovation. Aim will only lend his light to those who need it to move forward with manifesting their desire. If one desires something on the behalf of another, Aim will only assist with manifestation if he is given a burnt offering. The offering should be prepared during sunrise and buried the same day during sunset.

29/72 Astaroth

Astaroth welcomes all who practice alchemical manifestation into the domain of benevolent understanding. Once one has obtained the path, applied the divine spark, and seen them self for who they truly are; Astaroth will show them how their mind, body, and soul will be effected by following through with the manifestation. If any damage is to be sustained, Astaroth will provide a remedy.

58/72 Amy

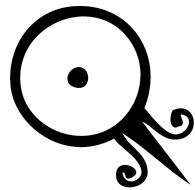

Amy resides within the fires of eternal judgment. When the practitioner passes through this fire their chances of success are illuminated and all aspirations that are incompatible with the discipline of alchemical manifestation will be immolated.

17/72 Botis

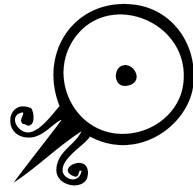

Botis is the psychic surgeon that removes all doubts and impurities from the practitioner. All beings and alchemical workings must be cleansed of any negative karma before traveling to the gateways that lead to the physical dimension.

14/72 Leraje

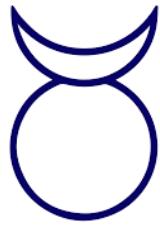

Leraje facilitates the operations of the trial grounds. It is here that the practitioners fortitude is tested. The trials vary by individual but are never impossible.

37/72 Phenex

Phenex rules over the astral air and will take the practitioner to the realm of hidden gateways. This service costs one acorn.

68/72 Belial

Belial is the creator of portals and protector of the realm of hidden gateways. The practitioner must consult with Belial in order to travel in between the realm of occult knowledge and physical reality.

48/72 Haagenti

Haagenti maintains the realm of occult knowledge. It is here that the energy of the practitioners desire is integrated with the overall system of alchemical manifestation. An ethereal elixir is produced through this process. Haagenti will put the elixir in a gold flask before instructing the practitioner to pass back through Belial's portal to the physical dimension.

60/72 Vapula

Vapula ensures that the ethereal elixir manifests what the practitioner desires when it is poured onto the earth. If the elixir yields no fruit he will take the gold flask back to Haagenti to retrieve an elixir that is authentic.
